Mysuru, Apr. 14 (RK&BCT)- Long waits at Sub-Registrar Offices to register properties will now be a thing of the past, as the State Government has launched Kaveri 2.0 software in the last week of March.

She was speaking after inaugurating an awareness programme on Kaveri 2.0 this morning at Mysore Builders' Charitable Trust (MBCT) Auditorium on Akkamahadevi Road at Vishweshwaranagar. EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Sometime in 2018, I started following a raw vegan diet and meditating seriously. A few weeks into meditation, I started feeling a pleasant tingling sensation between my eyebrows. The tingling would be most intense during meditation, but would arbitrarily persist throughout the day.

During this period, when in the hazy zone between sleep and wakefulness, I had what could be labelled as two vital epiphanies. Deep inside, I was aware that this knowledge that had dawned on me had something to do with the sensation I experienced between my eyebrows.

I started researching my "symptoms." I learnt that Hinduism/Buddhism recognised 7 primary chakras, which are energy centres corresponding with different organs of the human body. The ajna chakra or the "third-eye" chakra lies between the eyebrows; it corresponds with the pineal gland, the activation of which is associated with intuition and wisdom. It is said to be the gateway between humans and divinity.

It is said that as children, we are born with an open "third eye." However, years of calcification causes its blockage, thereby reducing our intuitive abilities. However, the ajna chakra can be reopened through spiritual practices like yoga; meditation et al. Non-spiritual practices like extraordinary absorption in one's work can cause the third eye to reopen. I have heard of legendary chess players and mathematicians who claimed that new moves and solutions to mathematical problems, respectively, dawned on them in their sleep. Initially, I had assumed that sleep bridges the gap between the conscious and the subconscious making such insights possible.

New York City appoints first 'rat czar'

New York: New York City has named its first-ever "rat czar" to tackle the Big Apple's growing rat population, which has become a "major quality-of-life and health issue."

New York City Mayor Eric Adams appointed former school teacher Kathleen Corradi on Wednesday as the city's first director of rodent mitigation, or "rat czar."

"New York City has done a lot recently when it comes to fighting public enemy number one: rats. But it was clear we needed someone solely focused on leading our rat reduction efforts across all five boroughs, and today I'm proud to announce Kathy Corradi as New York City's first-ever 'rat czar,'" said Mayor Adams.

"Kathy has the knowledge, drive, experience and energy to send rats packing and create a cleaner more welcoming city for all New Yorkers," Adams added.

Overdue album returned after 40 years

Toronto: Librarians at a Toronto library were shocked when a vinyl record recently returned to the facility turned out to be more than 40 years overdue.

The Toronto Public Library said in an Instagram post that the record, Dance Music from the time of Praetorius by Fritz Neumayer, was returned this week to the library's Spadina Road branch.

Librarians checked the album's date card and were shocked to discover it had been due back Oct. 5, 1982. "Good thing we eliminated late fines last year," library officials wrote.

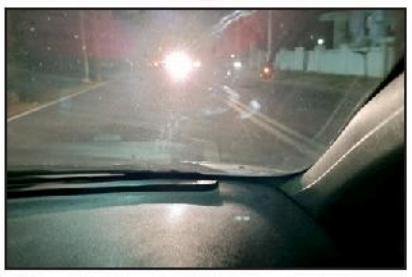
VOICE OF THE READER

Keep strict vigil on motorists using high beam lights

Sir,

Most of the two-wheeler riders using high beam headlights in vehicles has become a menace in Mysuru, which is going on unabated. Don't they care about the trouble the oncoming motorists face? One goes blind as the intensity of bulbs being used are high and beyond permissible limits and specially the halogen version which are worst. The complaint that roads aren't good is not at all a reason as the low beam head lights are quite sufficient to get good view of roads.



I still remember, during 2014 or so, when Dr. M.A. Saleem as Police Commissioner had enforced use of low beam headlights in Mysuru by strict vigilance and a nominal fine of Rs.100 on violators. Why don't the present Traffic Police authorities implement this rule? This apparently helps senior citizens on wheels and makes evening drive comfortable. Hope this plea falls on right ears and motorists have a hassle-free drive.

Nandini milk row: KRRS to stage State-wide protest on Apr. 15

Mysuru, Apr.14 (MTY&DM)- Accusing the BJP Government of planning to merge the State's popular milk brand Nandini with Gujarat's Amul, the Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha (KRRS) will stage a demonstration at all District Headquarters of the State on Apr.15.

Announcing this at a press meet here, KRRS President Badagalapura Nagendra alleged that efforts are going on at the Government level to merge Nandini with Amul and thus finish off KMF. Maintaining that Nandini milk brand is Kannadigas' pride, he said that the KRRS will strongly oppose any plans of merger. Accusing the State and Union BJP Governments of trying to finish off KMF, whose milk products are popular both in domestic and international markets, Nagendra wanted the Government to strengthen KMF further so as to make it a much more popular brand in the entire country.

Asserting that the KRRS would oppose BJP candidates in all Assembly segments, Nagendra said that the Sarvodaya Karnataka Party is contesting a few seats in the Assembly polls. The party will support CPI and CPI (M) and candidates of other like-minded parties in all other Constituencies, he added.

Kodagu VHP President escapes attack on life

Madikeri, Apr. 14 (PS&BCT)- Some unknown assailants fired gunshots on the car in which advocate and Kodagu District President of Vishwa Hindu Parishad (VHP) P. Krishnamurthy was travelling at around 11.30 pm on Wednesday.

Krishnamurthy

Krishnamurthy's car was attacked near Abbyala on the Chettalli-Madikeri Road when he was returning to his residence at Madikeri. The bullet only hit the car and Krishnamurthy escaped unhurt. It is suspected that the accused must have shot from behind a roadside bush.

In a statement to the Police, Krishnamurthy said that he met his friend and fellow advocate Ballaranda Kanti Cariappa at Chettalli around 7 pm. Kanti Cariappa is also the Chettalli Gram Panchayat member.

"We proceeded towards Kushalnagar to meet VHP worker Vinu and Bajrang Dal worker Shivaswami. After dinner at Kushalnagar, I offered to drop Kanti Cariappa at Chettalli," he told the Police.

"It was 9.50 pm when we reached Chettalli from Kushalnagar and after dropping Kanti Cariappa at Ponnathmotte, I left towards Madikeri via Chettalli Road," he stated.

The car reached Abbyala at around 11 pm when Krishnamurthy heard a thud sound and one of the side windshields of the car shattered into pieces as a bullet pierced through. "I realised that someone wanted to kill me but missed the target. I immediately sped away and reached Madikeri Rural Police Station," Krishnamurthy narrated in his complaint.

The Police suspect that the assailants knew the timing of Krishnamurthy passing the stretch in his car and had fired the .22 gun as the car was moving on the Abbyala Road. The criminals might have been lying in wait for the car to pass.

Kodagu SP K. Ramarajan visited the pot and the car has been subjected to forensic examination. A complaint in this regard has been filed at the Madikeri Rural Police Station and the Police are on the hunt for the shooters.

Virajpet MLA K.G. Bopaiah has termed the attempt on Krishnamurthy's life an act of cowardice. Speaking to reporters at Bhagamandala, he said that several anti-national elements and the banned PFI were behind the killing of Praveen Nettaru in Sullia last year and they were provided training in Kodagu.

"I have asked the Police to break the back of terror organisations," he said.

Meanwhile, the VHP and the Madikeri Advocates Association have condemned the shooting and have demanded immediate arrest of the culprits.

The Police must not allow anti-social elements to thrive in Kodagu, they demanded.

Maharani's College canteen contractor ordered to vacate

Mysuru, Apr. 14- Karnataka Public Places Authority's District Court has ordered the canteen contractor of Maharani's Science College on JLB Road to vacate the canteen as she was running the canteen even though the contract period had ended.

A rental agreement from 2017 to 2022 was made to run the canteen by taking a security deposit of Rs. 21,300 and a rent of Rs. 7,100 was fixed.

But instead of 58 months, the canteen contractor had paid rent for only 26 months and had also not paid the electricity bill of 52 months amounting to Rs. 2.6 lakh.

Meanwhile, the College Principal had instructed the tenant Prabhavati (canteen contractor) to pay remaining rent and power bill and vacate the canteen. But Prabhavati had filed a case at the Civil Court and had not vacated.

Meanwhile, the College Principal knocked the doors of Karnataka Public Places Authority's District Court.

The Court, which took up the case, ordered Prabhavati to pay a total of Rs. 5.03 lakh (pending rent Rs. 2,43,800, power and water bill of Rs. 2.60 lakh) and hand over the canteen to the Head of the College.

District Public Prosecutor Umesh Kumar argued on behalf of the College.

'SVEEP' action intensified in areas of poor voting

From candle light rally, route marches and street rangolis, Mysuru looks to boost voter turnout

ZP CEO and SVEEP Nodal Officer K.M. Gayathri, Mysuru SP Seema Latkar and Additional SP Dr. B.N. Nandini taking out a route march to create awareness among voters at Yelwal in Mysuru on Wednesday. Picture right shows a candle light voter awareness rally held last evening in Hunsur.

Mysuru, Apr. 14 (BCT) - The committee looking after activities under Systematic Voter Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) for the coming Assembly elections in Mysuru district has set a goal of carrying out voter awareness campaigns in each village for bringing maximum number of voters to the polling booths.

As part of SVEEP activities, rallies, route marches, candle-light awareness programmes, literary and art activities are being held across all the 11 Constituencies in Mysuru District.

Much before the Election Commission announced Assembly poll dates for Karnataka, SVEEP Committee Nodal Officer and Zilla Panchayat CEO K.M. Gayathri listed out various initiatives to increase voter participation. The first step in this regard was the appointment of former International Cricketer Javagal Srinath as the SVEEP Ambassador.

Taking note of the very low turnout in urban and rural areas in the last elections, the SVEEP Committee decided to implement voter awareness programmes to reach out to the young and first-time voters as well as migrant labourers and transgender people and other marginalised sections.

Special attention to educate voters

Volunteers were identified in the booths that saw low voter turnout and special attention was given for educating the voters on the need for exercising their franchise. As the polling date draws closer (May 10), the awareness activities, candle light rally and awareness campaigns have only intensified to attract maximum participation of voters in the democratic process.

A candlelight awareness programme was held at Hunsur last night where a human chain was also formed. An oath of compulsory voting was also administered to the participants who included many residents of the town and the villagers from the nearby areas. Notably, the voters took the pledge that they will not be influenced by any inducements like cash, gold, religion and freebies and would exercise their franchise in a free and fair manner.

On Wednesday, a route march and a voter awareness programme were held at Yelwal, where ZP CEO and SVEEP Nodal Officer K.M. Gayathri called upon the voters to exercise their democratic right mandatorily. She asked the people to vote fearlessly and strengthen the foundation of democracy and also to ensure the good future for next generation.

The route march was held under the leadership of Mysuru SP Seema Latkar and paramilitary forces also took part.

The SP called upon the villagers to come out in large numbers and vote to increase the polling percentage to 100.

A major rally was also held at T. Narasipur yesterday where hundreds of public marched along the streets urging the people to vote. Local booth-level volunteers were asked to draw rangolis on every street in villages and encourage the people to vote.

Taluk Panchayat and Gram Panchayat authorities have been asked to set out on a tour of villages in motorcycles, carrying attractive messages in Kannada and English on voting.

Officers said that they are playing recorded messages wherever the volunteers visit to explain the importance of voting, also interact with the residents and hold meetings. The SVEEP teams are also focussing on reaching out to the tribal populations by visiting their hamlets and encouraging them to participate in the democratic process.

New software to prevent fraud in land registration

"Kaveri 2.0 is a revolutionary technology that will not only end hassles in property registration but also end the menace of middlemen at Sub-Registrar Offices. Property buyers can upload documents which will be verified by the Sub-Registrar Office concerned and after the verification, buyers can pay stamp duty and registration fees online and schedule the date and time for registration as per their convenience," Dr. Mamatha explained.

All 260 Sub-Registrar Offices in the State have been connected with the software. "When the public visits the Sub-Registrar's Offices after the initial processes, the registration process will be completed within 10 minutes. Once done, digitally signed documents will be sent to buyers," she said.

The software has already undergone user acceptance test and has proved easy to use. "The new software would make the registration process user-friendly by dividing it into three stages of pre-registration, registration and post-registration," she explained. There is no fee payment in cash anywhere. Fees should be paid through online payment, UPI, credit/debit card, check/DD.

Kaveri 2.0 is designed to be fraud-proof as it prevents impersonation and fraudulent registrations. To avoid any fraudulent transaction, the Kaveri 2.0 software provides for integration of application with many other departmental applications like Bhoomi, e-SWATHU, e-AASTHI, KHAJANE-II, FRUITS and SAKALA, Dr. Mamatha added.

As the software is integrated with all land record-related software, the current status of any property will be known immediately. "There is a system to ensure the condition of the property is checked till the last moment of completion of the registration process," she said.

Lakshmikantha Reddy and others offered floral tributes to the portrait of Dr. Ambedkar. None of the people's representatives or political leaders attended the event as poll code is in force.

Thousands of people from Ashokapuram and members of several organisations took out a mammoth rally organised as part of 132nd birth anniversary celebrations of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, in the city this morning.

Mysore Memories...

T.S. Venkannayya: The Big Brother of Kannada Literary Pantheon - 1

T. S. Venkannayya was University of Mysore's first Kannada Professor. He was responsible for nurturing such future literary giants as K. V. Puttappa, D. L. Narasimhachar, M. V. Seetharamaiah, G. Venkatasubbiah and S. V. Parameshwara Bhatta. He was the very life of Maharaja's College 'Common Room.' He was instrumental in laying the foundations for University of Mysore's 'Prasaranga', Maharaja's College 'Karnataka Sangha' and Central College 'Karnataka Sangha.' Under his able guidance, 'Prabhuddha Karnataka' took shape and gave voice to many a future Kannada littérateur. Known for his over-arching generosity (often at his own detriment) and sweet, affable demeanour, this tall man was literally the big brother of Kannada Literary Pantheon. This is our small tribute to his memory. —Ed

Prof. T. S. Venkannayya

By Dr. Bhagirath S. Naganath

T. S. Venkannayya was born on October 1, 1885 at Talaku village in Chitradurga to parents Subbanna and Lakshmidevamma. Venkannayya's father Subbanna was a poet in his own right and was known to compose poetry impromptu. He ensured that his son would be familiar with 'Mahabharata', 'Ramayana' and 'Bhagavata' at a young age.

At five years of age, Venkannayya was admitted to Coolimutt. He was a student of Narasinga Rao. Venkannaya was the youngest member to sit the exams at 12 years of age! After his preliminary schooling, Venkannayya joined A.V. School at Challakere where he passed his Kannada lower secondary in 1897 and his English lower secondary exam in 1899. In 1902, a fourteen-year-old Venkannayya was married to an eight-year-old Bhagirathamma. He completed his matriculation exam in the same year.

Venkannayya passed his first year F.A. exam in 1903 from Maharaja's College. Finding second year F.A. Mathematics challenging, Venkannayya got himself transferred to Bellary's Wardlaw College in the hope of finding additional help. He passed his second year F.A. in 1904 and was presented with a hardbound volume of The Bible as prize! Venkannayya passed his B.A. exam in 1908. His attempts at studying Law at Bombay (1909) were only partially successful and he had to instead focus on doing M.A. at Madras.

At Mysore, Venkannayya learnt Kannada and Telugu from Thimmappayya Sastry and Rallapalli Anantakrishna Sharma at Maharaja's College. Following this, Venkannayya briefly relocated to Dharwad for a while and taught History, English and Kannada at Basel Mission High School. His good friend Jnana Kannan (who was the Head Master), Principal Muller and Srikanta Sastri (Sanskritist) were Venkannayya's circle of friends at this time. Venkannayya eventually became famous as Talaku master!

Venkannayya completed his M.A. in first class in 1914 from Madras. Principal Muller congratulated him and raised his salary. After Dharwad, he joined St. Joseph's High School in Bangalore as a History teacher in 1915.

A.R. Krishnasastry and T.S. Venkannayya were best of friends. Once when A.R. Krishnasastry was sick, Venkannayya, who was not one to offer prayers for favours, made an exception by requesting that a fraction of his lifespan be set aside for his friend. As if by miracle, A.R. Krishnasastry made a miraculous recovery! Krishnasastry always recollected this with great affection and gratitude.

In 1917, Venkannayya was appointed as Head Master for the Government School in Doddaballapur. A few months later, he was transferred to Bangalore's Collegiate High School as an English teacher. Owing to A.R. Krishnasastry's transfer from Central College, Bangalore, Venkannayya was now offered the former's position. A.R. Krishnasastry's exit was indeed a loss for Venkannayya. However, Venkannayya's family was ecstatic at the news of this new University job.

The Kannada Sahitya Parishat and The Central College Karnataka Sangha both came into existence around 1915. T.S. Venkannayya and A.R. Krishnasastry were both interested in strengthening the Kannada movement and therefore approached D.V. Gundappa to seek his support and guidance in impressing the youth to join the cause. D.V.G.'s poem 'Vanasuma' was among Venkannayya's favourite and he persuaded A.R. Krishnasastry to adopt it as the prayer song of the Karnataka Sangha. In fact, D.V.G. was so impressed with Venkannayya's oratorical skills that he records in his writing that he 'spoke like one possessed!' D.V.G. furthermore described Venkannayya as a man blessed with a 'unique feel for literature.' They were indeed best of friends. While in Bangalore, Venkannayya stayed with D.V.G. for a brief time. Venkannayya's meticulous attention to detail in cooking was amusingly noted on many occasions by D.V.G. and he describes him as a walking repository of recipes !

Under the auspices of the Karnataka Sangha, a book was published about Muddanna and his birth anniversary was celebrated in a befitting manner. The Quarterly Journal 'Prabhuddha Karnataka' took shape during these years. After A.R. Krishnasastry left for Mysore, Venkannayya took over the responsibility for managing 'Prabhuddha Karnataka'. Under his able stewardship, 'Prabhuddha Karnataka' succeeded in bringing to light many works of V. Seetharamaiah, K.S. Narasimha Swamy, G.P. Rajaratnam and P.T. Narasimhachar. As editor, Venkannayya helped bring many old works of Kannada poetry back into print once again. In fact, Bellave Venkatanaranappa who was involved in the editing and reprinting of 'Pampabharata' repeatedly acknowledged T.S. Venkannayya's priceless contribution to this project.

On more than one occasion, Venkannayya was offered the chairmanship of a forthcoming Sahitya Parishat meeting and every single time he assiduously turned it down, on the premise that there were more senior and better deserving candidates than himself for the post!

Venkannayya's wife Bhagirathamma passed away in 1924. Two years later, he married Rukmini. In the same year, that is, 1926, he was appointed as Assistant Professor at Maharaja's College, Mysore. In 1926, B.M. Srikantaiah was the Registrar of the University and Sir Brajendranath Seal was the Vice-Chancellor. The Kannada B.A. Honours course had just been started. B. Krishnappa was the Assistant Professor at this time and he was due for a promotion. Sadly, weeks before the promotion, he passed away. This, now vacant post, had to be filled as the Honours programme was already underway. B.M. Srikantaiah and N.S Subba Rao felt that T.S. Venkannayya was the right choice for the post. But Venkannayya would hear nothing of it as he felt that his good friend A.R. Krishnasastry was senior to him and hence deserved the promotion. B.M. Srikantaiah however did not see it that way. But neither N.S. Subba Rao nor B.M. Srikantaiah could convince Venkannayya to accede to the post. Finally, they wrote to Metcalfe at Central College, Bangalore. Metcalfe summoned T.S. Venkannayya to his office and after a three-hour long discussion he was compelled to become the University's first Kannada Professor !

Battle for Varuna

Ignore rival, have faith in voters: Siddu on Somanna

Opposition Leader in the Legislative Assembly Siddharamaiah seeking the blessings of Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji in city yesterday. Mavinahalli Siddegowda (extreme left), Congress candidate of Chamundeshwari Constituency and others look on.

Mysuru, Apr. 14 (MK&BS)-Opposition Leader in the Legislative Assembly Siddharamaiah has exuded confidence that he will emerge victorious in Varuna Constituency, irrespective of whether his rival is V. Somanna of BJP or whoever.

Speaking to media persons after seeking the blessings of Suttur Mutt Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji in city yesterday, Siddharamaiah said "I am not bothered about my opponent, as I have confidence in the voters. The voters and party workers have decided to make me win the election. Our boy (his son and sitting MLA Dr. Yathindra Siddharamaiah) hit the campaign trail one month ago and he (BJP candidate V. Somanna) has come now. Let him canvass, as what counts more is who gets voters' blessings than contesting the election."

To a question whether Rahu, Kethu exist still, Siddharamaiah, who refused to comment, however said, "There is no fault in Somanna meeting Chamarajanagar MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad, also a BJP leader. Let them flood money in Varuna and do whatever they want, I won't rack my brain."

The High Command should decide on my second seat Kolar. Given the opportunity to contest the election from Kolar, I will take the plunge, or else will contest only from Varuna, he clarified.

To another question on why Siddharamaiah alone is targeted by rivals during every election, he said "It is due to fear that they target me always. More the fear, more the enemies, isn't it?"

"I don't have anything personal towards Somanna as during 2006 (Chamundeshwari by-election), he had canvassed for me. Now, as he is the political opponent, our leaders and workers want to defeat him in the election. Yathindra is already going to villages to seek votes," the Congress leader said.

"I have already visited 60 Assembly Constituencies and in the remaining 20 days, I will tour 80 Constituencies, covering at least four segments per day," said Siddharamaiah.

Talks with Seer

Siddharamaiah also held separate talks with Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji during his visit to the Mutt. He kept the supporters accompanying him away and held discussions with Swamiji for over 15 minutes.

Nomination on Apr. 19

I will file nomination papers from Varuna on Apr.19. Besides, I will campaign for a day in my home Constituency. I am confident that the people will bless me, even if all the forces come together. I became Opposition Leader and also Chief Minister from Varuna. Hence, I am confident that the people of Varuna will handhold me in this election.

— Siddharamaiah
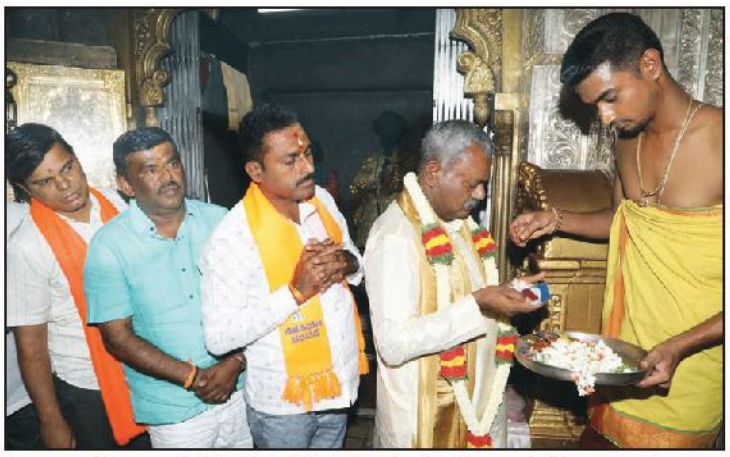
Opposition Leader

'Cong. will gain power for sure'

Mysuru, Apr. 14 (MTY&BS)-Opposition Leader Siddharamaiah has said 'As the people of the State are fed up of BJP Government's misrule, Congress will ascend the seat of power for sure. For the overall development of Chamundeshwari Constituency, the victory of party candidate Mavinahalli Siddegowda should be ensured in the election.'

Speaking after inaugurating the meeting of Congress leaders and party workers of Chamundeshwari Constituency organised at a choultry in Kergalli yesterday, he said "I got a political birth in Chamundeshwari Constituency. I have a lot of respect and love towards the people of the Constituency. That was the reason why I granted adequate funds for Chamundeshwari, as Chief Minister. Many wanted me to contest election this time from here, but I opted for Varuna which also includes my native (Siddaramanahundi) to contest my last election." A total of 11 leaders had applied for ticket from Chamundeshwari, but the High Command has officially announced the candidature of Mavinahalli Siddegowda, he said.

BJP will win 140-plus seats: Dist. Minister



Cooperation and District Minister S. T. Somashekar seeking the blessings of Goddess Chamundeshwari at Chamundi Hill yesterday.

Mysuru, Apr. 14 (MK&BS)-Cooperation and District Minister S.T. Somashekar, who was in city yesterday, said that the tickets have been announced after doing much homework and BJP will win over 140 seats in the elections on May 10.

Speaking to media persons after seeking the blessings of Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, he said "I came to Swamiji to seek the blessings, as I have filed nomination paper from Yeshwanthpur Constituency. I have also offered puja to Goddess Chamundeshwari at Chamundi Hill."

Reacting to the developments after the announcement of tickets, Somashekar said "It is common for leaders to vent their disappointment during the announcement of ticket. The party top brass will hold talks with disgruntled leaders and everything will be normal in a day or two. However, in our party the ticket has been announced after much deliberations and hence the BJP will score victory in over 140 seats this time."

Campaigning in 4 districts

"The party has instructed me to campaign in four districts. I will start campaigning from Apr.24 in Mysuru, Mandya, Chamarajanagar and Hassan districts. At Yeshwanthpur in Bengaluru, I was in favour of development 365 days of the year. I have been at the service of the people of my Constituency for the last 10 years. The voters will bless me this time too," said Somashekar.

BJP candidate for T. Narasipur Constituency Dr. Revanna too sought the blessings of Suttur Seer on the occasion.

AAP candidate files papers for NR

Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) Narasimharaja (NR) Constituency candidate Dharmashree Singh filed her nomination papers yesterday after taking out a march of more than 1,500 volunteers and well-wishers. The rally was led by her father T.G. Sangram Singh, party workers, Ismail, Moazzam, Sadiq, Mangala, Keerthi, Shahab, Baig and Ghouse among others. She submitted her papers to Returning Officer S.G. Manjunath Singh along with Sangram Singh, Padma, Dr. Rizwana Afsar and Lakshmikant Tiwari.

WORD OF THE DAY

Appassionato

Pronunciation: uh-pah-see-uh-nah-toh.
Meaning: Impassioned; with passion or strong feeling.
Origin: Appassionato is based on the Italian verb appassionare, "to impassion, excite, thrill." The ultimate source of appassionare is Latin patī, "to suffer," which has two stems in English: pass-, as in passion, and pat-, as in patient. Appassionato was first recorded in English in the 1830s.
Example: The film's score turned bombastic and appassionato as the two villains battled for victory.

THE ODD WORD

Abessive

Indicating absence or lack.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

On a hiding to nothing

Meaning: To be faced with a situation which is pointless, as a successful outcome is impossible. This is usually expressed in terms of a sporting contest in which one of two outcomes is foreseen, either a hiding or nothing. The 'to' in the phrase indicates alternative outcomes, as in terms like '6 to 1' or 'dollars to doughnuts'.
The phrase has two applications. One scenario would be that of a team which is expected to win easily but has the betting odds so strongly in its favour that no kudos or reward, that is, 'nothing', would be gained from victory. The other is that of a weak contestant who is expected to be beaten, that is, get 'a hiding'.
Origin: The phrase is known from the early 20th century and originated as horse racing parlance. The earliest record that one can find is from Arthur Binstead's novel Mop Fair, 1905, or, to give it its glorious technicolor name, Mop Fair. Some Elegant Extracts from the Private Correspondence of Lady Viola Drumcree, the Fatherless Daughter of Feodorovna, Countess of Chertsey: "They will, like the man who was on a hiding to nothing the first time Tom Sayers saw him, 'take it lying down'."... Two citations that demonstrate the alternative possible scenarios given above come from The Times and The Sunday Times, from the 1970s: 1975 - The Sunday Times: "The Indian batsmen were on a hiding to nothing. They could not win."
1977 - The Times: "Derby know they are on a hiding to nothing at Fourth Division Colchester, who have a reputation as giant-killers."
